

Africans and International Law: a Long Walk out of Colonial Darkness From Foreign Subjugation to Individual Self-Determination

Autumn 2024

Four conferences by

Judge Fatsah Ouguergouz, visiting professor at the Geneva Graduate Institute

In Auditorium A2 at la Maison de la Paix Geneva

12:30-14 :00

1 November	The Public Law of Europe and the Denial of African Sovereignty
8 November	The Reform of International Law and the Emergence of African Statehood
15 November	The Public Law of Africa (Organization of African Unity) and the Consolidation of African Statehood
22 November	The Public Law of Africa (African Union) and the Self-Realization of African Individuals and Peoples